

Munch & Move case study template

This case study template asks questions about your service's experience in implementing healthy eating and physical activity strategies in-line with the Munch & Move program. Case studies may be used to share ideas and inspiration to other services via our electronic newsletter or our Facebook page. Please complete the case study template and return it to your Health Promotion Officer, or via HNELHD-GoodForKids@health.nsw.gov.au.

Service details
Service name:
Contact person name:
Contact person role:
Service contact phone:
Service contact email:
Background
What is something your service is doing well, related to Munch & Move?
Why did you focus on this or what led you to do this?
What did you do to make the change or implement this practice?
Did you experience any challenges? How did you overcome them?

'The heart of a child'
by Worimi
Artist Lara Went

Good for Kids
Good for Life

Outcomes and recommendations for others
What changes have you seen as a result of doing this?
What feedback has been received from educators, children or families?
Do you have any tips for other services wanting to do something similar?
Consent
Do you give permission for Good for Kids to distribute this information to other services or the general public, including our newsletters or website?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
Comments
Any other information/comments?

'The heart of a child' by Worimi
Artist Lara Went

Good for Kids
Good for Life

